WHY 13 MITZVOT

Many Jewish berachot (blessings) include the phrase “who sanctifies us through Your commandments.” As you get closer to becoming a bar/bat mitzvah, “subject to the commandments,” this phrase will take on special meaning for you. Your becoming a bar/bat mitzvah symbolizes your willingness to become more and more responsible for performing these commandments, the mitzvot, which are the duties and obligations of Jewish life. Performing mitzvot is the special way that the Jewish people try to make the world a better place. They also help us perpetuate our heritage by fulfilling our historic covenant with God. We do this 13 MITZVOT, “through Your commandments.”

In our tradition, every Jew becomes a bar/bat mitzvah, not just those who undergo a special ceremony. According to our tradition, when a girl or boy reaches the age of 13, she/he becomes responsible for performing mitzvot.

The ceremony at which a child becomes a bar/bat mitzvah, held around the age of 13, or anytime afterwards in our congregation, celebrates the beginning of your transition from childhood to adulthood. You will not suddenly, magically, become an adult. But you will start the long process of growth that will help you reach that goal. On Shabbat you will help lead the congregation in worship and read a portion from the Torah. Your leading of the worship service and your mastery of Hebrew, the language of the Jewish people, are, in themselves, fulfillment of two mitzvot. They symbolize your readiness to declare yourself a bar/bat mitzvah.

During the next months, you will train and prepare for the service. You will also take part in 13 MITZVOT. The core of this program is performing mitzvot. Just as we practice a musical instrument before playing a concert, or a sport before playing in a game, so we practice mitzvot before becoming a bar/bat mitzvah. 13 MITZVOT is designed to help you prepare to become a real bar/bat mitzvah.

WHAT IS 13 MITZVOT?

13 MITZVOT is a learning-through-doing program based on rabbinic teachings. According to tradition, there are 613 mitzvot in the Torah. The Rabbis taught that all mitzvot fall into one of three areas: study, worship, and loving deeds. As they tell us:

“The world depends on three things: on Torah, on worship, and on loving deeds.” –Pirke Avot 1:2

13 MITZVOT has been created around these three categories of mitzvot. To help prepare you for becoming a bar/bat mitzvah, you will be asked to fulfill some mitzvot from each category.

13 MITZVOT offers you a choice of different mitzvot in each of three categories: Torah (study), worship and loving deeds. You will be asked to fulfill 13 of these. Some mitzvot will be required and some will be elective, that is, you will decide which ones you would like to do. You might even have your own ideas for some mitzvot. If so, we will be glad to help you.

HOW DOES 13 MITZVOT WORK?

Because 13 MITZVOT is designed to help prepare you for the responsibilities you will assume as you enter Jewish adulthood, the program is self-administered. We will help you understand the program and answer any questions you might have, but it will be up to you to fulfill the program's requirements.

Some mitzvot, such as leading the congregation in prayer and reading or chanting your Torah portion, will not be completed until the day of your becoming a bar/bat mitzvah. Most of the mitzvot, however, will be finished before that day. You must complete your program at three weeks before your bar/bat mitzvah date.

WHICH MITZVOT SHOULD I FULFILL?

The mitzvot from which you can choose are listed on the following pages. If you have any questions regarding those listed or would like to do something that is not included on the list, please contact the Director of Education and Youth Activities.

TORAH (STUDY)

Choose Three

1. In order to begin to develop a Jewish library, add at least two Jewish books to your personal collection. Read them and then write a report on each.
2. Watch three educational programs with Jewish subject matter or two Jewish-themed movies and write a report on each one.
3. Subscribe to a Jewish magazine or find articles on Jewish subjects on the Internet. Write reports on two articles.
4. Learn to play a piece of Jewish music or create a piece of Jewish artwork. You must submit your artwork (or take a picture of it). You may choose to perform the music at Wednesday minyan or submit a video showing you playing the music.
5. Visit a Jewish museum with your family, and write a paper on one of the exhibits that sparked your interest. The seventh-grade class trip to the Holocaust museum can fulfill this.
6. Attend a Jewish-themed play with your family. Create a billboard for the play or write a review.
7. Attend an interfaith event in the community and write a report about your experience.

Note: All written work must be at minimum one typed double-spaced page (12 font).

WORSHIP

Choose Four

1. Choose one of the Shabbat mitzvot (Kiddush, Motzi, candles) each Friday evening for one month, and after performing the mitzvah, discuss it with your family around the table, finding out how each member of the family feels about that mitzvah. Keep a written diary of each week's conversation.
2. It is a tradition to recite the Shema, including V'ahavta in Hebrew and English before going to bed at night. For one month, keep a daily written record of thoughts you have while doing this mitzvah.
3. Attend with your family ALL special services (Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, Passover, Shavuot) between now and becoming a bar/bat mitzvah. If you are uncertain what this entails, please ask. This may require missing school.
4. Make and use a Jewish ritual object such as a mezuzah, Havdalah candle, chanukiah, yad or challah cover. You must submit the object or a photo of it.
5. Lead part of your family's Passover Seder other than the Four Questions.
6. Learn to sound the shofar and take part in the High Holiday services.
7. Design an activity based on the Torah portion for a Shabbat B'Yachad service. You must get permission in advance from the Director of Education and Youth Activities.
8. Write your own personal interpretations for two of the prayers in the Shabbat morning service.
9. Read from the Megillah at the synagogue's Purim service.

LOVING DEEDS

Choose Six

1. Make a contribution to one of the Synagogue Funds in honor or in memory of someone.
2. Pledge a part of your gift money to the charity of your choice.
3. Start a clothing drive in your neighborhood and donate the clothes to charity.
4. Support a local recycling project by bringing in at least one month of your family's refuse (old newspapers, glass bottles, cans) to the appropriate drop-off center.
5. Read the daily paper for a week and determine the local issues in our community and current events that concern the world. Write to an elected official about an issue of concern either in the community, the country, or to help the Jewish people. Submit a copy to the Director.
6. Help a classmate who is ill. Bring homework, library books, messages between home and school.
7. Show hospitality. Invite another congregation family over for a Shabbat meal and help cook.
8. Prepare and donate a food package to a needy family.
9. Comfort a mourner by paying a visit or sending a card.
10. Help out your family or talk with your parents to figure out a new chore or task that will indicate your growing responsibility and maturity.
11. Help out an older adult who lives in your neighborhood by raking leaves, shoveling snow or running errands.
12. Help your parent grocery shop each week for one month, and select food items (non-perishable) to donate to feed the hungry.
13. Volunteer to help out at two synagogue events (babysitting, Chanukah party, Purim carnival).
14. Visit a nursing home and lead an activity for the residents.
15. Participate in an organized walk or run for a charitable cause.
16. Participate in the synagogue's annual Good Deeds Day.
17. Prepare a meal for the homeless shelter.
